Sports Division

Appointment of AIU Observers

In order to ensure authenticity of performance of the young sportspersons and to monitor the progress of the conduct of Inter University Tournaments, as many as 70 most suitable AIU Observers selected from University sector, National Sports Federations, Sports Authority of India and National Institute of Sports etc. were appointed. The selection criteria was based mainly on three major aspects. Sports achievement, Professional experience and contribution to the field of sports. Over the years, it is observed that the existing monitoring system proved to be quite helpful in stream-lining the management of university sports and raising the standard of technical conduct of Inter-University competitions at par with the National Championships. As a result, performance level of university athletes/teams has been improving constantly. This significant development is viewed as a healthy sign of Brighter Future of the Indian Sports at domestic and International levels.

Inter University Tournaments

The Inter University Tournaments constitute the main component of Programme(s) for promoting competitive sports in universities and colleges. During the year 2007, Inter-University Tournaments in 19 disciplines for men, 16 for women and 18 for both men and women were organized at 70 university centers throughout India, with a view to create sport-culture and broad-base competitive sports for achieving desired results.

Inter-University Tournaments are used as a common platform for Talent search for promotion on scientific lines to throw up adequate youth potential to feed the main national stream. As a matter of fact, the university sports deserves high priority in the National Agenda for raising the performance level of Indian athletes while competing at international sporting events.

Strength of Participants

More than of 2,00,000 (Two Lakh) University Students participated in 87 Inter-University competitions during the year 2007. The details are given as under:

S No	Category of the Tournaments	Number of Events	Average Number of Participants/Athletes
1.	National Basis	26	51,225
2.	Three Zone Basis	21	53,140
3.	Five Zone Basis	40	96,300
	Total Events & participants	87	2,00,665

World University Games: 2007

A 63 member Indian Universities Contingent participated in the World University Games from August 8-18, 2007 held at Bangkok (Thailand) All the athletes displayed their ever best performance during the mega event. For the first time in the history of Association of Indian Universities, two medals were won by the Indian Athletes in a highly contested World competition.

- Ms Harveen Kaur Sarao won Gold Medal in 10 mts Pistol Shooting
- Another Bronze Medal was also won in a team event of 10 mts Pistol Shooting at the World University Games-2007

For this splendid success in the highly competitive Universiade, the credit goes to the member universities for providing the athletes focused and result-oriented training and effective psychological moral boosting for their respective competitions

Further, parental support in their build up stage proved to be miraculous deserving all admirations. We hope that universities will continue to inspire and perspire young generation athletes for achieving excellence in International Sporting events and bring laurels to the nation. The details of the participants are given below:

14th Champion Colleges Hockey(M) Tournament : 2007

The Champion Colleges Hockey (Men) Tournament was introduced in the year 1992-93 with a view to encourage and promote competitive hockey at the college level. The tournament was jointly organized by the Association of Indian Universities and Jawaharlal Nehru Hockey Tournament Society from February 8-17, 2007 at Shivaji Stadium, New Delhi. As a result of the collective, sustained and sincere efforts of both AIU and Nehru Hockey, the SAIL, a public sector unit, came forward to take-up the responsibility of providing the required finances to the tune of Rs.8.00-Lakh only for the successful conduct of the prestigious tournament. The event was a grand success. The services of the professionally qualified and competent officiating staff were provided by the Indian Railways Sports Promotion Board and Sports Authority of India, in this regard. The ranking of the participating teams in the tournaments is given below:-

S.No.	Name of Participating College and University	Position
1.	D A V College, Jalandhar (Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar)	First

Advance Training of Combined Universities Cricket (M) Team: 2007

During the Vizzy Trophy Cricket (M) Tournament, only twenty (20) talented Cricket Players were selected by the duly constituted Committee headed by Shri Sanjeev Sharma, International test player. The advance training of the Indian Universities Cricket (M) Team was organized and sponsored by the BCCI from January 16 to 31, 2007 at National Cricket Academy, Bangalore under the able guidance of the qualified coaches and trainers. It proved to be a meaningful and rewarding experience for the university budding cricket players.

The Indian Universities (M) team participated in Inter-Zonal Cricket Academy Tournament in the month of May-June, 2007 held at NCA, Bangalore. The young team displayed satisfactory performance and made their presence felt in the circles of Indian professional Cricket. We hope that this positive development will certainly motivate many other young players to take up Cricket as their professional career option.

Youth Affairs Division

In continuation of AIU endeavors towards promoting art, culture, human and cultural values amongst youth, the Division organized various youth programmes during the calendar year at the regional and national level. The youth programmes are pivotal for an all round development of personality of our youth, towards facilitating in them an appreciation for art and culture; positive life style, life skills, leadership qualities, national and emotional integration.

Inter-University National Youth Festival

The University of Madras hosted the Inter-University National Youth Festival during January 21 to 25, 2007 in which 830 selected university youth artistes of 60 universities participated.

The S.N.D.T. Women's University, Mumbai organized the Second South Asian Universities Youth Festival (SAUFEST) under the aegis of the Association of Indian Universities (AIU) at the Juhu campus of the S.N.D.T. Women's University, Mumbai.

The concept of organizing SAUFEST is to encourage the future generation of the youth from South Asian countries to come on a common platform for sharing views, experiences, innovations and common agenda in tackling the future challenges. The participating countries included India, Bangladesh, Nepal, Maldives, Mauritius, Bhutan and Sri Lanka.

Over 250 youth delegates and officials participated in the event held from March 7-11, 2007. In addition to the 100 foreign delegates, 150 selected participants of the four Inter- University Zonal Youth Festivals, which were organized by AIU during 2006-2007, participated in the event.

During the five-day festival, four different panel discussions and one special interactive session of HIV/AIDS were organized. The panel discussions included - Scientific Basis of Yoga (7th March), Empowerment of Women (8th March), South Asian Developmental Issues on Education (9th March) and South Asian Developmental Issues on Human Rights (11th March). The eminent speakers participated in the panel discussions. The delegates were also taken for a sight seeing of Mumbai, which they thoroughly enjoyed.

Participation of selected Universities Teams in National Open Youth Festival, Pune

The cultural contingents of Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar (Folk Song) and University of Mumbai (Group Song) participated in the National Open Youth Festival which was organized by the Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports, Government of India during January 12-16, 2007 in Pune. This was the first ever invitation from the Ministry to invite the AIU contingents in the National Open Youth Festival.

Third IU National Yoga Training Camp

AIU organised the Third National Yoga Training Camp at the Swami Vivekanand Yoga Anusandhan Samsthan, Bangalore during January 11 to 22, 2007. During the ten-day yoga camp the participants were made aware about the importance of Yoga for the youth. The emphasis was laid both on theoretical and practical aspects of yoga. Forty participants from the twenty universities participated in the programme.

Participation in the Commonwealth Youth Day Celebration, Sri Lanka

On the invitation of the Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports, Government of India three students of Rajiv Gandhi Univ. of Health Sciences, Bangalore and Birla Institute of Technology, Mesra, Ranchi participated in the Commonwealth Youth Day Celebration held in Colombo, Sri Lanka from 12-14 March 2007. Participation in the Youth Delegation Exchange Programme, China

Names of 64 selected students from 32 universities were sent by AIU to the Ministry of Youth Affairs & Sports, Government of India for further consideration under the Youth Delegation Exchange Programme held in China during June 2007. Finally, 16 youth from various universities participated in the programme, while the Ministry has kept the names of remaining youth for future programmes

Poster on HIV/AIDS

The best poster on HIV/AIDS was sent to the universities as a part of awareness on HIV/AIDS. The Poster was selected from the Inter-University National Poster Exhibition organised by AIU at the University of Mumbai with the sponsorship of NACO.

Second Youth Leadership Camp

The 2nd Inter-University National Youth Leadership Camp (YLC) was organized by the AIU in collaboration with Guru Nanak Dev University, Amritsar at the University Holiday Home, Dalhousie, Himachal Pradesh from September 13-22, 2007. 31 students of 12 universities participated in the programme. During the programme, the experts were invited to interact with the participants on the topics pertaining to Personality Development, Communication and Presentation Skills, University-Industry Linkage, Youth and Career, Gender Sensitivity, Literacy, Environment, Leadership, Health Issues, Team Building etc.

International Non-Violence Day

As declared by the UN that the 2nd October, birth anniversary of Mahatma Gandhi should be observed as an International Non-Violence Day during 2001-2010; the universities were sent information to observe the same. The period has been declared by the United Nations as the International Decade for the Culture of Peace and Non-Violence for the Youth of the World.

Library and Documentation Division

The AIU Library and Documentations Division renders the following services to the researchers:

- Circulation Services
- Reference Services
- Selective Dissemination of Information
- Indexing Services
- Press Clipping Services
- Bibliographic Services
- Reprographic Services

Another important aspect of documentation services rendered by the Library pertains to The Annual Index to the University News. The index comprises two parts – Subject and Author. The subject index is made up of three components, i.e. articles, convocation addresses and books reviews. The author index is, in fact, the name index in the dictionary format of the contributors of articles and the books reviewers.

During the year 2007, 120 titles have been added to the AIU Library's collection. During the year the library received 150 periodicals (109 Indian and 41 foreign). Of these 37 were subscribed, 69 were received gratis and 44 received in exchange of 'UNIVERSITY NEWS'.

Around 2500 students and scholars (including from Developed and Developing Countries), visited the library during the year. About 11,400 photocopies had been supplied to the scholars. 15 requests were received for Inter-Library loan and 12 were serviced during the year. Around 1050 telephonic queries were attended during the year.

UNIVERSITY NEWS

The University News maintained its longstanding tradition of regularity of appearance in the year 2007 also. It has carved a niche for itself in the field of higher education in the country by maintaining richness, relevance and state-of-the-art contents. The major developments in the University News in the year 2007 are :
